

FACULTY SHOWCASE:

Health and Aging Research across UW

Friday, November 9, 2018 | 3-5:00 p.m. | Monona Room, Funo Center

Session 1 | 3-3:50 p.m.

“Early Life Exposure and Old Age Outcomes,” Jason Fletcher (public affairs; sociology; CDHA director)

“Variability in Lifespans and Health Trajectories,” Michal Engelman (sociology)

“The Economics of Informal Care,” Corina Mommaerts (economics)

“Parental Childhood Maltreatment and Later-Life Relationships with Parents: Implications for Health,” Jooyoung Kong (social work)

“Biobank-Wide Association Scan Identifies Novel Risk Factors for Alzheimer’s Disease and Endophenotypes,” Qiongshi Lu (biostatistics and medical informatics)

Break | 4:50-4:10 p.m.

Session 2 | 4:10-5:00 p.m.

“Medicaid Transfers since the Great Recession,” Gwyn Pauley (economics)

“New work in Understanding Alzheimer’s Disease,” Corinne Engelman (population health sciences)

“Social Determinants of Health and Long-term Care Transitions among Older Adults,” Stephanie Robert (social work)

“The Import of Individual Differences in the Time Course of Emotional Responses for Aging, Health, and Well-being,” Stacey Schaefer (Center for Healthy Minds)

“Occupations and Health,” Lindsay Jacobs (public affairs)

Reception | 5-6:00 p.m.